Sara Holbrook is a performance poet. In her poem Blueprints?, the speaker considers the characteristics she inherited from her family.

Blueprints?

By Sara Holbrook

Will my ears grow long as Grandpa's
What makes us look like kin?
Tell me where'd I get long eyelashes
and where'd I get my chin?

Timing recommendation for question parts 1a to 1d: 15 minutes

- These question parts are assessed according to criterion A (Analysing).
- They are worth 10 marks.

Comment on the significance of the line "Who will I become?"

Text 1

Sara Holbrook is a performance poet. In her poem Blueprints?, the speaker considers the characteristics she inherited from her family.

Blueprints?

By Sara Holbrook

Will my ears grow long as Grandpa's
What makes us look like kin?
Tell me where'd I get long eyelashes
and where'd I get my chin?

Where'd I get my ice cream sweet tooth
and this nose that wiggles when I talk?

Will my ears grow long as Grandpa's
What makes us look like kin?
Tell me where'd I get long eyelashes
and where'd I get my chin?

Where'd I get my ice cream sweet tooth
and this nose that wiggles when I talk?
Where's I get my dizzy daydreams and my foot-rolling, side-step walk?

Did I inherit my sense of humour
and these crooked, ugly toes?
What if I balloon like Uncle Harry
and have to shave my nose?

How long after I start growing
until I start to shrink?
Am I going to lose my teeth,

Did I inherit my sense of humour
and these crooked, ugly toes?
What if I balloon like Uncle Harry
and have to shave my nose?

How long after I start growing
until I start to shrink?
Am I going to lose my teeth,
some day?
My hair?
My mind?

Do you think
I'll be tall or short or thin
or bursting at the seams?
Am I naturally this crazy?
Is it something in my genes?

Do you think
I'll be tall or short or thin
or bursting at the seams?
Am I naturally this crazy?
Is it something in my genes?

I'm more than
who I am,
I'm also who I'm from.
It's a scary speculation --
Who will I become?
